Agricultural Services

Eccles Heddon LLP has been serving the agricultural community since the early decades of the last century. We act for both the second and third generation of families whose forebears used Eccles Heddon in the original acquisition of their farms.

We have considerable experience in the farming sector across Yorkshire and Cumbria, an excellent reputation for providing sound, pragmatic advice and we enjoy strong working relationships with land agents and accountants in the area.

Whether you are a farmer, landowner or tenant, our agricultural team at Eccles Heddon LLP is well placed to deal with any needs or requirements you have.
